

Visiting Author Dina Nasr-Heerema

On Saturday October 28th from 10:00 am-11:00 am, author Dina Nasr-Heerema will be coming to the Totowa Public Library to read her new children's book entitled Geraldina and the New Kid. This children's book sends the message about the importance of acceptance, friendship, and tolerance. A book talk and book signing will follow.

For more information or to register, please call the Borough of Totowa Public Library at 973-790-3265.

Dina Nasr-Heerema; author of A Twist of Fate and I Hope, understands how important acceptance and friendship are to a child because it helps them find love in this world. Those experiences inspired her to write this story.

Dina lives in New Jersey with her husband Rich and their precious daughter Jewel. As an elementary school teacher and a mother, she is inspired by children every day, especially by her amazing daughter.

Visit her website at www.hopeandfate.com

The following books will be available for purchase and personalization:

Borough of Totowa Public Library
537 Totowa Road, Totowa NJ 07512